Brief Description of Institution

Ilia State University (ILIAUNI / ISU) is a leading research and educational institution in Georgia and the region. Located in Georgia's capital, Tbilisi, Iliauni was established in 2006 as a merger of six different institutions, each having a long history and a diverse institutional profile. Over the past 20 years the university has undergone remarkable growth and development. Its extensive research citations and references set it apart as unparalleled among all universities in the country. Currently, the University encompasses 4 faculties, 76 research centers and institutes spread across the country, an academic community of over 1400 professionals, and serves approximately 17000 students, with over 850 international students among them. Coupled with its highly qualified academic and administrative professionals and modernized research facilities in Tbilisi and in the regions of Georgia, ISU has become one of the most preferred universities for students and faculty members today.
