CALL FOR ACADEMIC STAFF MOBILITY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VALLADOLID

A new call has been announced within the framework of the ERASMUS+ for the academic personnel of Ilia State University to carry out 5-days teaching staff mobility (either in autumn or spring) during the 2026-2027 academic year at the University of Valladolid (Spain).

Purpose of Mobility:
STA/STT combined mobility: The aim is to promote one-week stays (five working days + two days for travel) for academic staff from partner institutions of the Erasmus+ KA171 project at the University of Valladolid (in accordance with the offer available at https://uvamobplus2.uva.es/publico/courses) in order to teach at least four hours in official curricula at the University of Valladolid and at the same time to undertake training.

Conditions Applicable to Mobility:

- Academic staff must be full-time or contract employee of Ilia State University during both the call period and the mobility.
- The combined teaching and training stay will last for five working days at the University of Valladolid (plus two days' travel). Shorter stays may not be undertaken.
- The courses taught at the University of Valladolid must form part of the curriculum that leads to the awarding of an official degree and must be reflected in a teaching programme agreed between the two institutions prior to the start of the stay.
- A minimum of four hours teaching is required. The work plan must be agreed with the assigned academic responsible and must be signed prior to the mobility.
- The period covered by the stay must coincide with the academic year at the University of Valladolid.
- Training activities that provide for a five-day work plan must be undertaken.
